“With regard to Fraud Management, CSI tools uses a more preventive approach. By reporting “who has almost access” CSI tools can detect different ways as to how fraud can be pledged and this information can then be used to optimize the SAP security or to improve the detective fraud management cycle.

This is the main reason why CSI tools is number one in the audit & consultancy community and that the company is awarded for its approach by analysts and press”, said by Silicon Review.

“Through a unique approach we can help our customers find a way in the complexity that is SAP security. We are very happy and especially proud that The Silicon Review recognizes our unique features and solutions”, said Johan Hermans, CEO of CSI tools. “This gives us power to keep showing that this matter can be simplified drastically.”
